

Faithify Campaign Supporting Déva Guesthouse

By Rev. Roger Bertschausen

Déva Unitarian Guesthouse room under construction.

Almost all our UUPCC pilgrimages to Transylvania stop in Déva, the sacred place where the Unitarian founder Dávid Ferenc (Francis David) died in prison.

Walking up to and spending time contemplating in the citadel where Ferenc died continues to be a very moving experience for U/U pilgrims. Afterwards many of our travelers stop in the local Unitarian church and experience firsthand its inspiring story, a story in which Partnership plays a key role. Travelers then seek shelter for the night in a...rundown and disappointing hotel. Year after year, the Déva visit yields one of the highest reviewed parts of our pilgrimages: the visit to the citadel. And it yields one of the lowest: the Déva hotels.

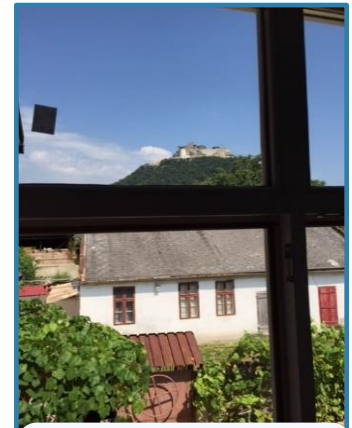

Well, friends, help is on the way! The Déva church has just completed a beautiful guesthouse! The guesthouse will accommodate up to 14 people in 6 different rooms with adjoining bathrooms. It's located on the church's premises, an easy walk to the citadel and Déva's bustling downtown. It offers gorgeous views of the citadel.

But, alas, there's one thing missing: furniture!

Déva's partner has started a Faithify campaign to provide furniture for the guesthouse. You can help put on the finishing touches of the Déva Unitarian Guesthouse and make it a comfortable and beautiful place for U/U pilgrims from around the world to rest. Help complete this project in the most important Unitarian pilgrimage site in the world.

I encourage you to make a generous donation now!
