

NEW Summer Budget Transylvania Pilgrimage July 31 - August 13, 2019

(rev. 03/21/2019)

This budget pilgrimage is a great way for cost-conscious North Americans who have more time to travel in the summer to visit the homeland of our Unitarian faith and spend time with their partners. Although airfare isn't as low as is the case with our fall Thanksgiving Pilgrimage, accommodations will be more modest to help keep costs down.

The pilgrimage begins in Bucharest on Wednesday, July 31, and ends back in Bucharest Tuesday, August 13, 2019. Along the way we will visit historic Unitarian sites and places of a more general interest, including:

- Bucharest – two nights, and a city tour in this elegant European capital city!
- Sinaia – home to Peles castle, the summer palace of the Romanian Royals.
- Sibiu (Hungarian name: Nagyszeben) – the historic Saxon capital of Transylvania, named the European Cultural Capital for 2007-8.
- Torda - where the first act of religious tolerance in Europe was signed in 1568
- Kolozsvár (Romanian name: Cluj-Napoca) – the city in central Romania where the Transylvanian Unitarian Church has its headquarters, high school and the church which houses the rock that Francis David spoke from when he "converted the whole town's population to Unitarianism."
- Gyulafehérvár (Romanian name: Alba Iulia) - where a 1000-year-old church houses the tomb of the Unitarian King Sigismund and his mother, Isabella.
- Déva – participate in a vesper service in the citadel where Francis David was martyred.
- Segesvár (Romanian name: Sighisoara) – 13th century medieval walled city which is both a UNESCO World Heritage site and the purported birthplace of Vlad Tepes – aka "Dracula".
- The Homoród Valley - where 19 Unitarian villages with historic frescoed churches are set among unparalleled scenery.

The trip will begin and end in the Romanian capital city of Bucharest. It then travels north over the Carpathian Mts. into Transylvania where we will tour several Unitarian holy places and tourist sites before arriving in your partner village to experience Transylvanian village or town life for several days. Pilgrims will discover the warmth and loving hospitality of Transylvanian Unitarian families attending church, sharing meals, and getting to know Unitarians from another culture.

The trip is open to all. Through this trip we hope to foster a new understanding of our historical roots and build deeper relationships with each other and our co-religionists overseas. The tour logistics will be coordinated by the UU Partner Church Council Pilgrimage Service which has more than two decades of experience facilitating the visits of North American UUs to Eastern & Central Europe.
