

JUST LAUNCHED: FAITHIFY Campaign for Fairfax Transylvanian Village Life Festival

By Richard Van Duizend, UU Congregation of Fairfax

The UU Congregation of Fairfax (Oakton, VA) launches a Faithify campaign to help fund a visit by 14 youth and adults from its partner, the Szentgerice Unitarian Church in Transylvania. You may DONATE HERE to help.

Fairfax has a rich history of partnership with the Szentgerice congregation, and they are excited to help sponsor a visit from their Transylvania partners and friends. The visit is from Oct 24 – Nov 4, 2018, and will honor and commemorate 25 years of mutual relationships.

Szentgerice Unitarian Church

The visitors from Szentgerice plan to give back in two ways:

- by helping to build a peace garden on the grounds of our church, and
- by demonstrating and teaching Hungarian dancing, crafts, cooking and baking at a Transylvanian Village Life Festival on November 3rd.

The Festival is an inter-generational event open to children and adults of Fairfax, and to all UU's from the DC-area UU congregations, particularly those with partners in Hungary and Transylvania.

While collaborating on these projects, there will be wonderful opportunities to explore the common and different threads of our faith and cultures, to find new growth just outside of our comfort zone, and to make new friends through fun and shared experiences. Please help us strengthen the bonds between the partners and make this a memorable trip for both congregations!

Making Chimney Bread (Kürtős Kalács)

The $10,000 cost for the trip is being shared by both congregations. We seek your help in raising at least $2,000 toward our share of expenses for airfare, insurance, meals and activities during the visit. Thank you!

Szentgerice & Fairfax members learn a song together!
